

Rather than weakening the NJ Do Not Call law, the law should be strengthened by also restricting calls from charities and politicians.